Discernment of Gifts: A Spiritual Gifts Inventory

Purpose: A personal Spiritual Gifts inventory can assist us in identifying our gifts, but then what? Every person is needed in order to best equip chapel groups and parish ministries. Identifying the needs of the organization and matching them up with your personal gifts can not only be rewarding but sometimes surprising and even exciting!

Together, ask for the intercession of Our Lady of Good Counsel, patroness of MCCW.

Let us pray. Lord of heavenly wisdom, Who has given us your own Mother Mary to be our guide and Counselor in this our lives, Grant that in all things we may have the grace to seek maternal instruction and to profit by it in humility and love. O Mother of Good Counsel, Patroness of the Military Council of Catholic Women, help us to understand and fulfill the mind and will of your Divine Son, Jesus Christ.

Under the blessing of the Father, and by the power of the Holy Spirit, may we be responsible and intelligent daughters of the Church. May we labor in the spirit of renewal to realize more perfectly the Kingdom of God here below, as the only true preparation for our share in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Discovering Your Spiritual Gifts

God has given each Christian two vitally important Gifts:

1. The Gift of faith in Jesus Christ, his work of redemption, and thus forgiveness of sin.
2. The Gift of one or more special abilities, which are to be used for the purpose of unifying the body of Christ and for the growth of God's Kingdom. These abilities are called Spiritual Gifts and they are received through our Baptism, nourished by the Eucharist and reinforced and deepened at Confirmation. Like other presents, it is impossible to fully appreciate and make use of our Spiritual Gifts until they have been opened.

This tool will help you discover and begin to open and employ your Spiritual Gifts by guiding you through the following three activities:

Part I. Scripture References and Spiritual Gifts support the existence of Spiritual Gifts and identify those which are commonly found in service today gives a solid foundation for your discernment process.

Part II. The Self-Assessment is a list of 60 questions which will help you identify which Gifts you have received in greatest measure.

Part III. Exploration of Use suggests the various types of ministry you might be most effective in because of your Spiritual Gifts.

May the special abilities God has given you be deployed in areas of ministry where they will be most effective for the good of the entire Church. May these Gifts be welcomed, affirmed and utilized by the one who is Gifted. We ask the Holy Spirit to be with us and guide us. Amen.

Part I. Scripture References:

The Apostle Paul addresses the presence of Spiritual Gifts in three main sections of scripture: Romans 12, I Corinthians 12, and Ephesians 4.

Peter also verifies their existence in I Peter 4:10.

Through these sections of scripture, we learn that all Christians have been given at least one Spiritual Gift. The purpose of Spiritual Gifts is twofold: (1) to unify Christians in their faith and (2) to produce growth within the church, both numerical and spiritual. These Gifts are to be used out of love for one another, and in service to one another.

We do not choose which Gifts we will receive. God bestows them upon us through the work of the Holy Spirit. Not all of the Gifts identified in scripture are used in this inventory. The spectacular Gifts (speaking in tongues, healing and miracles, prophecy, bold proclamation of God) and some of the non-spectacular Gifts (martyrdom, celibacy) have not been included. Although these Gifts exist, they are not commonly utilized in the mainstream of parish life. Since the objectives of Spiritual Gift deployment are to unify and produce growth through service, in today's church climate, only the service-related Gifts have been included.

SCORING GRID For each set of three questions, fill in the number on the lines below, either 1, 2, 3, 4 or 0 that you answered for each and then add them together and fill in that number on the last line.

For example, in the category of Administration, if you circled 2, 4, and 3 for questions 1, 21 and 41, write those numbers on the lines and add 2+4+3 which totals 9; write 9 on the last line.

Your strongest Gift(s) will generally have a total score of "7" or more. If you have more than one Gift with a total of seven or more, then all of these Gifts can be referred to as your "Gift cluster." Notice how each Gift within the cluster has the potential to complement and support another. The Gifts within the cluster will need to be further explored to determine with which ones you have been truly blessed. This inventory is designed to begin your journey toward Spiritual Gifts discovery. Keep in mind that it is not a scientific instrument. Your perceptions will be validated by others and confirmed through prayer and by their use over time.

Now circle the top five totals (those with a total score of 7 or more). List the Spiritual Gifts on the lines below, listing the Gifts with higher totals first. In the event of a tie, select the Gift you feel you have used effectively in the past, or the one you think you might be most effective.

This group of Gifts is your Gift cluster.

With which Gifts have you been truly blessed? Discovering the answer to that question requires the following:

- 1. Prayer: Seek the Holy Spirit's guidance while evaluating your Gifts.
- 2. Study: Become familiar with the scripture references, definitions, and how each Gift functions within the Body of Christ. This will provide you with a solid foundation from which to further evaluate your Gifts.
- 3. Self-Examination: Explore your feelings about each of the Spiritual Gifts in your cluster. Examples of how each Gift may be utilized in the church are provided below. As you read these examples, ask yourself how you feel about the types of ministry activity identified for the Gifts in your cluster. You may expect to feel fulfilled through the use of your Gifts.
- 4. Track Your Results: As you use your Spiritual Gifts, pay close attention to the results produced through your efforts. You can expect to experience positive results from the use of your Gifts.
- 5. Listen For Affirmation: As you use your Spiritual Gifts, listen for affirmation from other Christians. They will recognize and confirm your Spiritual Gifts, through genuine expressions of approval and thankfulness for a job well done!
- 6. Putting Your Gifts To Use: All Christians are to work together, supporting one another. However, our Gifts make us better prepared and equipped to perform in some areas of ministry over others. A person who is working within a ministry area in which he or she is Gifted for, will be more effective in that ministry than one for which he or she is not Gifted. In what types of ministry will you be most effective? How can you practically put your Gifts to use within your parish and in your community? A brief list of ministry examples follows. These examples have been provided merely as thought starters and should not be considered an exhaustive list. Use them as a starting point in exploring the possibilities for putting your Gifts to use within your parish and in your community.
